Ashley Seaman is a Minister of Word and Sacrament in the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A. Her endeavors include pastoring and offering deeksha, a healing modality, at North Presbyterian Church and at a new church development in the Highlands called the Threshold: www.thethreshold.us

Please join us to create a spiritual group for children and their parents Tuesday mornings in March at Highland Park Presbyterian Church.

Our time together will include music, playtime for children, reflective time for parents, and deeksha, a quieting time of the mind and blossoming of the heart.

Donations will be accepted for the professional child-care helper.
